Dear Highland Families,

Our traveling author is back at it again! Dean Jacobs has just left for Rwanda where he will be working for the Dian Fossey Foundation. His task is to report on the various projects the foundation is involved in, including the preservation of the last remaining mountain gorillas in the wild. Dean will be posting stories, photos, and video from his experiences on his website. We will certainly be tuning in to deanjacobs.org here at school and encourage you to do the same at home!

Here are the directions for writing a letter to Dean Jacobs on his blog:

- Type: deanjacobs.org into the browser box
